8th Grade Summer Reading Course for The Book Thief

The incoming eighth graders are required to read two books over the summer: The Book Thief by Markus Zusak and The Giver by Lois Lowry. In May, assignment that will prepare them for their writing project at the beginning of the school year. In years past, I have found that many students struggle with organizing their notes, time management, and understanding the complexity of The Book Thief. By design, The Giver is much more manageable and is more of the “practice” part of the assignment.

Therefore, I am offering a summer session for The Book Thief. The course would focus on managing reading time, answering comprehension questions, note taking, and discussions all centered on The Book Thief. By the end, your child will have completed their summer reading and the corresponding assignments.
